

ANNONYArts

at Satori

Elaine Laws

Elaine has been producing and directing theatre since 1967. For the past 25+ years she has been the Drama Director at Althoff Catholic High School in Belleville, Illinois. Elaine has a Masters in Arts Administration/Theatre Management from Lindenwood University in St. Charles. Elaine's recent professional productions include directing "Shakespeare's Women or the Bard's Broads" and "Til the Cold Winter's Through" and producing "Em" for because why not? theatre company. Elaine was the prop procurer for "End of the Rainbow" for Max and Louis Productions and "The Music Man" for Gateway Center for Performing Arts. Elaine has an extensive collection of hats - over 1000... and is always on the lookout to add to her equally impressive stockpile of close to 500 chairs.

ANNONYArts